The Chinese Government having (through the Hon. Anson Burlingame) conceded to this Company the privilege of connecting the great seaports of the Empire by submarine electric telegraph cable, we propose commencing operations in China, and laying down a line of nine hundred miles at once, between the following port s, viz:

	Population.
Canton	1,000,000
Macao	60,000
Hong-Kong	250,000
Swatow	200,000
Amoy	250,000
Foo-Chow	1,250,000
Wan-Chu	300,000
Ningpo	400,000
Hang Chean	1,200,000
Shanghai	1,000,000
Total	5,910,000

These ports have a foreign commerce of $900,000,000, and an enormous domestic trade, besides which we have the immense internal commerce of the Empire, radiating from these points, through its canals and navigable rivers.

The cable being laid, this company proposes erecting land lines, and establishing a speedy and trustworthy means of communication, which must command there, as everywhere else, the communications of the Government, of business, and of social life especially in China. She has no postal system, and her only means now of communicating from town to town is by couriers on land, and by steamers on water.

The Western World knows that China is a very large country, in the main densely peopled; but few yet realize that she contains more than a third of the human race. The latest returns made to her central authorities for taxing purposes by the local magistrate make her population Four hundred and Fourteen millions, and this is more likely to be under than over the actual aggregate. Nearly all of these, who are over ten years old, not only can but do read and write. Her civilization is peculiar, but her literature is as extensive as that of Europe. China is a land of readers and readers; and the latter are exceedingly quick to avail themselves of every proffered facility for procuring early information. It is observed in California that the Chinese make great use of the telegraph, though it there transmits messages in English alone. To-day great numbers of fleet steamers are owned by Chinese merchants, and used by them exclusively for the transmission of early intelligence. If the telegraph we propose connecting all their great seaports, were now in existence, it is believed that its business would pay the cost within the first two years of its successful operation, and would steadily increase thereafter.

No enterprise commends itself as in a greater degree remunerative to capitalists, and to our whole people. It is of vast national importance commercially, politically and evangelically.

☞ The stock of this Company has been unqualifiedly recommended to capitalists and business men, as a desirable investment by editorial articles in the New York Herald, Tribune, World, Times, Post, Express, Independent, and in the Philadelphia North American, Press, Ledger, Inquirer, Age, Bulletin and Telegraph.

Shares of this company, to a limited number, may be obtained at $50 each, $10 payable down, $15 on the 1st of November, and $25 payable in monthly instalments of $2.50 each, commencing December 1, 1868, on application to

YOU ALL

HAVE HEARD OF

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

Prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia.

Their introduction into this country from Germany occurred in

THEY CURED YOUR

FATHERS AND MOTHERS,

And will cure you and your children. They are entirely different from the many preparations now in the country called Bitters or Tonics. They are no tavern preparation, or any thing like one; but good, honest, reliable medicines. They are

The greatest known remedies for

Liver Complaint,
DYSPEPSIA,
Nervous Debility,
JAUNDICE,
Diseases of the Kidneys,
ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN,

and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, stomach, or

IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil and Great Depression of Spirits.

All these indicate diseases of the Liver or Digestive Organs, combined with impure blood.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

is entirely vegetable and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts. The Roots, Herbs, and Barks from which these extracts are made, are gathered in Germany. All the medicinal virtuous are extracted from them by a Scientific Chemist. These extracts are then forwarded to this country to be used expressly for the manufacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with PURE Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in case where some pure alcoholic stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are entirely different from any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, these being scientific preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are mere decoctions of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Its taste is exquisite. It is a pleasure to take it, while its life-giving, exhilarating, and medicinal qualities have caused it to be known as the greatest of all tonics.

DEBILITY.

There is no medicine equal to Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic in cases of Debility. They impart a tone and vigor to the whole system, strengthen the appetite, cause an enjoyment of the food, enable the stomach to digest it, purify the blood, give a good, sound, healthy complexion, eradicate the yellow tinge from the eye, impart a bloom to the cheeks, and change the patient from a short-breathed, emaciated, weak, and nervous invalid, to a full-faced, stout, and vigorous person.

Weak and Delicate Children are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. In fact, they are Family Medicines. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three months old, the most delicate female, or a man of ninety.

These remedies are the best

ever known and will cure all diseases resulting from bad blood. Keep your blood pure; keep your Liver in order, keep your digestive organs in a sound, healthy condition, by the use of these remedies, and no diseases will ever assail you. The best men in the country recommend them. If years of honest reputation go for anything, you must try these preparations.

FROM HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867.

I find that "Hoofland's German Bitters" is not an intoxicating beverage, but is a good tonic, useful in disorders of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous action in the system.

Yours Truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD

FROM HON. JAMES THOMPSON.

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, April 26, 1866.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect,
JAMES THOMPSON.

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully,
J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates Street.

"AMUSING STORY OF JUDGE CRANE."

A good many years ago, there lived in Dutchess County, New York, a gentleman by the name of Crane. He was very wealthy, and highly respected for his public and private virtues, especially for his charitableness to the poor; but he always dressed in a plain garb, and would hardly ever wear any overcoat, whatever the weather might be; and it was seldom that he rode when he went abroad, although he owned many good horses. On the establishment of the Supreme Court, he was appointed a judge of one of the circuits.

On the morning of the day in which the court was to begin, the Judge set out before day-break, and walked gently on through hail, rain, and snow, to the appointed place. On arriving at Poughkeepsie, cold and wet, he walked to a tavern, where he found the landlady and servants were making large preparations for the entertainment of the judges, lawyers, and other gentlemen, whom they expected to attend the circuit court.

The Judge was determined to have some sport, and in a pleasant tone addressed the landlady. "I have no money and was obliged to come to court, and I have walked through this dreadful storm twenty miles. I am wet and cold, dry and hungry. I want something to eat before court begins," The landlady put herself into a majestic posture, and, with a look of contempt, said to the judge, "You say you are wet and cold, dry and hot; how can all that be?"

"No, my dear madam," says the Judge, "I said that I was wet and cold, and if you had been out as long as I have been in the storm, I think you would likewise be wet and cold, I said that I wanted something to drink and eat."

"But you have no money, you say;" returned the landlady. "I told you the truth," says the Judge, "the whole truth, and nothing but the truth; but, were I as rich as Croesus, I would be willing to work for something to eat and drink; and were I as poor as Job, in his utmost calamity, and had my health and strength as I now have, I could willingly go to work a little while, if I could only get a good bite of good victuals."

"Well, old daddy," says she, "how much do you want to drink?" "Half a gill of good brandy, madam," says he. "Very well," said she; "I will give you half a gill, and some cold victuals, if you will go into the back yard, and cut and split three armfulls of wood, and bring it into the kitchen, where the servants want to make a good fire to dry the gentlemen's great coats when they come; and after you get your victuals, I shall want you to go away."

The Judge drank his brandy, went into the woodyard, and soon cut and laid by the kitchen fire, the required quantity of wood. The landlady placed a cold luncheon before him, remarking, that there it was. "And it is almost as cold as myself," said he, "but not half so wet, for there is neither tea, coffee, nor chocolate to wet it."

"Beggars must not be choosers," said she. "I am not begging of you, madam, but have paid the full price demanded. "I told you," said she, "I would give you cold victuals, and there is cold boiled ham, cold pork and beef, and cold potatoes, and if you want any thing hot, there is mustard and pepper, and here is good bread, good butter and cheese, and all good enough, for such an old ragamuffin as you are."

"It is all very good," said he, pleasantly, "but, madam, be so good as to let me have some new milk, warm, right from the cow, to wet this good victuals." "The cows are not milked," said she. "Then let me have a bowl of cold milk," said he. "I would not send the servants in this storm to the spring house to skim it for you," said she.

"Dear madam," said he, with a pleasant smile, "I have a good wife at home, older than you are, who would go out in a worse storm than this, to milk the cows and bring the milk to the poorest man on earth, at his request; or bring the milk from the spring house, cream and all, without skimming, to feed the most abject of the human race."

"You have a very good wife at home!" says she. "Indeed I have," said he, "and she keeps my clothing clean and whole; and, notwithstanding you called me an old ragamuffin, I am not ashamed to appear abroad in the clothes I wear, in any good company." "Well, I must confess," says she, "that when you have your broad-rimmed hat off, you look middling well: but I wish you to be off, for we want the fire to dry the gentlemen's great coats and umbrellas by; and among the rest we expect Judge Crane."

"Judge Crane," says he, "who is Judge Crane?" "The circuit Judge," says she, "one of the supreme judges, you old simpleton." "Well," says he, "I will bet a goose that Judge Crane has not had, and will not have, a great coat on his back, or an umbrella over his head to-day." "I care nothing for your bets," said she, "eat and be off; I tell you Judge Crane is to be here, and we have no room for you."

"I don't care," said he, "one rye straw more for Judge Crane than I do for myself, and it has got to be so late that if he has to come at this time of the day, he would be more likely to go to the court house, and stay until dinner time. I know something about the old codger, and some people say he is a rusty, fusty, crusty old fudge."

"Pretty talk, indeed!" said the landlady, "about the supreme judge. Now eat and be off." "I tell you," said he, "Judge Crane is not the supreme judge and if he were, he is no more fit to be a judge than I am." "Well, now be off with yourself," said she.

"Don't be in so great a hurry," said he, mildly, "I wish to know who is landlord here, and to know where he is." "He is the high sheriff of the county, and won't be home till night; if he were here, you would not stay long." "Well, madam," said he, "give me a cup of cider to wet my victuals, if you won't give me milk." "Not a drop," says her ladyship.

The Judge, who had got pretty well warmed, and wished for his breakfast, now put on a stern countenance, and positively declared he would not leave the room and fire till he pleased.—"But," added he, "if you will grant my request, I will eat and be off."

The cider was immediately brought, and the judge partook heartily of the collation before him. He then took his broad-brimmed hat, and quietly walked to the court-house, where he found good fires and clean floors, and during the court hours, he presided with dignity and propriety.

When the Judge withdrew, the landlady anxiously looked after him for some time, supposing him to be some poor man, summoned up to court as a witness, or some culprit, or some vagabond, who might give her further trouble, and expressed to her servants a desire that they would see that he did not disturb the gentlemen and the judges that might put up there.

To this some of the girls answered, that, if he did come, they would return upon him some of the expression, which he used respecting Judge Crane.

"Let me see," says one, "rusty, crusty——" "yes, and fusty old Judge," says another.

When the court was adjourned, the day being stormy and cold, the judges and lawyers poured into the sheriff's tavern where they were sure of good fires and good fare.

Judge Crane went to a store and purchased a valuable shawl and put it in his pocket on the inside of his coat; he then walked slowly to the tavern. While he was thus detained, the landlady entered the dining room, and earnestly inquired if Judge Crane had come; but the answer was, "Not yet, madam, and perhaps he may not come."

The landlady who was anxious to pay the highest respect to the supreme judge, retired to the kitchen; not a little disappointed.

In the meantime, the Judge arrived, and being, at proper times, very sociable, and at all times fond of cheering the minds of those present, he began to tell some lively anecdotes, which set the whole company into a roar of laughter.

At this instant, one of the waiting maids entered the room, to inform the gentlemen that they might sit down to dinner. She did her errand, and hastened back to her mistress with the tidings that "the old fusty fellow, with his broad-rimmed hat on, was right among the bare-headed gentlemen, talking as loud as he could, and all the judges and lawyers were laughing at him."

"Then go," says she, "and whisper to the old man, that I wish him to come into the kitchen." The errand was done, accordingly, and the judge, in a low tone of voice, said to the girl, "Tell your mistress, I have a little business to do with some of these lawyers, and when that is done, I'll be off in the course of two or three days."

The girl returned and faithfully rehearsed the message, and added, that she believed the old fellow was drunk, or he would not have said "as soon as my business is done, I'll be off in two or three days."

"Well, Betty," says the mistress, "go back and stand by the head of the table, and when the gentlemen begin to sit down, do you whisper to some one of them, that I wish a vacant place left at the head of the table for Judge Crane, and then do you hasten back and see that John has the cider and other things in good order."

Betty again repaired to her post, at the head of the table, and softly informed a gentlemen of the request of her mistress. "Certainly," said the gentleman; and Betty hastened back to assist John. The gentlemen now sat down to an excellent repast, and after a short address to the Throne of Grace, delivered by Judge Crane, the company carved and served round in the usual form.

But as the Judge was of a singular turn in almost everything, and had taken a fancy, that, if a person eats light food, and that which is more solid, at the same meal, the light food should be eaten first; he therefore filled his plate with some pudding made of milk, rice, and eggs, and placing his left elbow on the table, and his head near the plate, began to eat according to his custom, which was very fast, although he was not a great eater.

Some of the gentlemen near the Judge, followed his example, as to partaking of the pudding before the meat. A large, deep vessel, which contained that article was nearly emptied, when Mary approached with two additional tureens of gravy, according to the command of her mistress, and as she set down the last near the Judge, he says to her, in an austere manner, "Girl, bring me a clean plate to eat some salad on."

The abrupt manner in which he addressed her, so disconcerted the poor girl, that she did not observe that any one excepting the Judge had partaken of the pudding, nor did she know what he meant by salad; but she observed that the large pudding pan was empty, and then hastened back with the utmost speed to her mistress, and addressed her thus,

"Oh, ma'am, that old fellow's there yet, and he is certainly crazy or drunk, for he is down at the table, and has eaten more than a skipple of the rice pudding already, and he told me, as if he was lord of the manor, to bring him in a clean plate to eat salad on."

"Bless me, where can we get salad this time of year? And the gentlemen have not done carving, and not one has begun to eat meat yet, I dare say. Oh, I'll clear him out," said the mistress, and she started for the dining-room.

The Judge was remarkable for not giving unnecessary trouble to anybody where he put up, and generally ate whatever was set before him, without making any remarks, and seldom made use of more than one plate at a meal; but at this time he observed near him a beautiful dish of raw white cabbage, cut and put into vinegar, which the low Dutch at Poughkeepsie call cold slaw, and which he called salad, and he wished for a separate plate to prepare some of it to his own taste.

The carving and serving of the meat were not yet finished when he expected a clean plate; and when the landlady arrived at the door, and fixed her keen eyes sternly on the Judge, he turning his eyes that way and observing her, mildly said, "Landlady, can I have a clean plate to eat some salad on?"

"A clean plate and salad!" retorted the landlady, indignantly, "I wish you would come into the kitchen until the gentlemen have dined; I had reserved that seat for Judge Crane."

The company were struck with astonishment, and fixed their eyes alternately on the landlady and on the Judge, and sat or stood in mute suspense; when the Judge replied, "You reserved this seat for Judge Crane, did you, landlady?" "Indeed I did," says she. "It was very kind," he then answered; "but if you will step to the door and see if he is coming, or send one of the servants to call for him, with your permission and the approbation of these gentlemen, with whom I have some business to do, I will occupy this seat till you have found the Judge."

"Find the Judge!" said she, with emphasis; "go look for him yourself, not send me nor my servants. I gave you your breakfast this morning for chopping a little wood, because you said you had no money; and I expected you would go away, and now you must come here to disturb these gentlemen at dinner."

Here the whole joke burst upon the persons present, who fell into a loud fit of laughter. After the tumult had a little subsided, the Judge mildly asked, "Did I chop wood to pay for my breakfast" "Indeed you did," said she, "and said you had no money."

"I told you the whole truth," replied the Judge, "but I have a shawl here worth more than ten dollars, which. I just now bought, and I will leave it with you in pawn, if you will only let me eat my dinner with these gentlemen. Here the gentlemen were biting their lips to keep from laughter.

"How did you buy a shawl worth more than ten dollars without money." "I bought it on credit," says he. "And where did you find credit to that amount?" said she. "I brought it from home," said he. That's a likely story, and something like your abuse of Judge Crane this morning," said she. "How could I abuse the Judge if he was not present?" asked he. "Why," replied she, "you called him rusty, fusty, fudge, and old codger, and said you didn't care a rye straw more for him than you did for yourself."

Here the whole company were in an uproar of laughter again. But as soon as it had subsided a little, one of the gentlemen asked the landlady how she knew that the gentleman she was addressing was not Judge Crane? "He Judge Crane? he looks more like a snipe than a crane."

Here the loud laughter burst forth a third time. After a little pause, the Judge said, "I must confess I am not a bird of very fine feathers, but I am a crane, and a crane is often a very useful instrument; I was a very good one in your kitchen this morning."

Before she had time to reply, some of the gentlemen, with whom she was acquainted, assured the landlady that she was talking with the presiding Judge. Astonished and confounded, she attempted some excuse, and hastily asked his pardon for her rudeness.

The Judge had, by this time, unobserved, taken the shawl from his pocket, and with a subdued smile, advanced a few steps towards the landlady, saying, "It is not my province to pardon, but it is my business to judge; I therefore decree that you and I shall hereafter be friends and I judge also that you will without hesitation, receive this shawl as a present.

So saying, he gently laid it over her shoulders, adding, "Take it, madam, and do not attempt to return it, for it was purchased on purpose for a present for you." She hastily retired in confusion, hardly knowing what she did, but taking the shawl with her, of course bearing no malice toward the Judge.

And here were three parties who had each two good things. The landlady had a good shawl, and a good lesson to meditate upon which was this,—be not too hasty in judging ill of a person from a rough outside; the gentlemen had a good dinner, and a good joke to talk over; and the Judge had good intentions in the joke and ability to follow up the lesson given.

THEY have got a new plan for the demolition of bed-bugs in operation in North Carolina. It is done by steam; one wheel catches them by the nose, another draws their teeth while a neat piston rod pushes arsenic down their wind-pipes.

A good newspaper is like a sensible and sound-hearted friend, whose appearance on one's threshhold gladdens the mind with the promise of a pleasant and profitable hour.

It seems no more than right that men should seize time by the forelock for the old fellow sooner or later pulls all their hair out.

HOUSE AND FARM.

The crops for 1868.—The Agricultural Department at Washington has prepared a table, showing the average yield per acre, during 1868, of the principal crops in the country, and the average price per bushel on Jan. 1, 1869. According to this table, in Pennsylvania the yield per acre are as follows:—Wheat, 12.8 bushels; rye, 13.2 bushels; barley, 21.4 bushels; oats, 27.8 bushels; corn, 35 bushels; buckwheat, 16.5 bushels; white potatoes, 88 bushels; sweet potatoes, 90 bushels, and hay, 1.35 tons. The average price per bushel on January 1st, 1869, were: Wheat $1.89; rye, $1.32; barley, 1.65; oats, 64 cts; corn, $1; buckwheat, $1.90; white potatoes, 93 cts; sweet potatoes, $1.66, and hay, $16 per ton. The several crops of Pennsylvania therefore yield the following money value per acre: Wheat, $25.34; rye, $17.42; barley 35.09; oats, 17.79; corn, $35; buckwheat, $17.99; white potatoes, $81.84; sweet potatoes, $149.40, and hay, $21.60. Due regard must be paid to the fact that some of these crops, such as barley and sweet potatoes, are only produced within narrow limits, and cannot therefore be taken as a fair specimen of their yield over the entire State.

Disease among Turkeys.—Farmers and housekeepers have had a plethora of various species of cholera among their cattle, poultry, &c. Horse cholera, cow cholera, sheep cholera, hog cholera and chicken cholera, have all had their day and their numerous victims. Cholera is generally incurable, hence whatever attacks an animal and carries it off, no matter what the nature of the ailment, is pronounced a cholera. The latest is the turkey cholera, which has attacked several flocks in different parts of the country, and is rapidly reducing their ranks. It first appears in the drooping appearance of the fowl, soon followed by the swelling of the head and throat and an incapacity to eat and drink. Examination shows that the tongue is thickly coated with a white gummy substance which fills the lower bill and chokes the fowl. A remedy which if applied in time, effects a cure, is to remove the gummy substance with a stick, and fill the mouth with lard and pepper. Housekeepers who note with alarm the destruction of a flock which cost so much labor and care last summer, will do well to note the remedy.

Sowing clover will no doubt be the most expeditious and cheap method of restoring worn out lands, or to continue good land in a fertile state, that can be employed. As a manure it is worth three or four times as much as that which is commonly hauled from the barnyard. The roots of clover furnish as much fertilizing material as the top growth. They are strong and penetrate to a great depth, and the mechanical condition of the soil is much improved by their decay. Some farmers turn under the crop when fully grown—say in June; others take off one crop and turn the second under; others take off two crops and plow under the second years growth. It affords almost the only method of improving high ground, where manure could not be hauled.

Digestion of Food.—Rice, boiled; pigs feet, boiled, tripe boiled will digest in one hour's time.

Venison steak, broiled; salmon, broiled; whipped eggs, raw, will digest in one and one-half hours.

Beef liver, broiled; dry cod-fish, boiled; apples, sweet and mellow, eaten raw, and cabbage with vinegar, will digest in two hours.

Roasted turkey, roasted goose and roasted pig, broiled lamb and boiled beans, roasted potatoes and boiled parsnips, will digest in two and one half hours.

Roasted beef, boiled mutton, boiled apple dumpling and Indian corn cake, will digest in three and one-fourth hours.

Stewed oysters, raw cheese, hard boiled and fried eggs, wheat bread, boiled potatoes and boiled turnips, will digest in three and one-half hours.

Fried beef, boiled and roasted fowls, roast duck and boiled cabbage, will digest in four hours, while roasted pork requires five and one-fourth hours.

Defend the Weak Cattle.—Some farmers are not as careful as their true interests require them to be in separating weak stock from the strong and aggressive when the season of storms and feeding comes round. In most herds embracing any considerable number, will be found some animals diminutive in size and timid in proportion to their physical weakness, which the more vigorous attack whenever a modest effort is made to share in the food supplied. They are hooked here and chased there by the strong, and should enlist the care and sympathy of their owner. It will pay well to provide a separate inclosure for such animals till sufficiently developed to hold their own at feeding time, or, till they are fit to be disposed of in some other way to advantage. If left to shirk for themselves they will be likely to go under before spring, or should they winter through they will be in a condition so exhausted as to render them next to valueless for that season.

Potatoes should always be kept in the dark. Rural housekeepers do not need to be told this, but many others who live in towns and cities should known that potatoes exposed to the light, for a day only, have their flavor injured, and the longer exposed the worse they are. Never use a greenish potato.

There was a lucky farmer near Dubuque, Iowa. On Monday night of last week two of his sheep became the mothers of seven lambs; one producing three and the other four. One of his cows had a calf; a sow had a litter of seventeen pigs; and his wife presented him with two bouncing boys.

The Bedford Gazette.

Friday Morning, February 19, 1869.

A ROW AMONG THE RADICALS.

On Tuesday night of last week, there was a meeting of the Radical party at the Court House. The usual "flat, stale and unprofitable" speeches were gotten off, and, the Inquirer informs us, one of them was a "powerful denunciation of Copperheadism and a scathing review of the record of the party." Doubtless.

This meeting endorsed Negro Suffrage in the resolutions which it adopted. It also denounced Andrew Johnson. It even went so far as to recommend the renomination of Gov. Geary. But the great question, the over-shaddowing issue, before the meeting, was, Shall the Bedford Inquirer, or the Bloody Run Press, or both, be considered the organ or organs of the party?

A resolution complimenting the Press as an able exponent of the principles (!) of the radical party, had been sent to the committee on resolutions. This was intended merely as a recognition of the services of the Press, but Bro. Lutz thought he saw a snake in it which might sting him almost as hard as a "copperhead." Being a member of the committee on resolutions, he fought it with all that awful savageness for which he is so greatly distinguished. The resolution was lost by a vote in the committee.

Mr. Elliott, of the Press, however, was not satisfied with the disposition made of this resolution by the committee. He determined that the matter should be brought before the meeting. Hr. Hall, who is a kind of a factotum for Elliott, then offered a resolution recognizing both papers as organs of the party, which was unanimously agreed to. This was, of course, perfectly satisfactory to the friends of the Press, as it gave them what they desired, a recognition of their paper as an organ of the party. Their victory was complete.

We offer our sincere condolence to our neighbor Lutz. He has been shabbily treated. Mr. Longenecker was "heartily endorsed," notwithstanding the thrusts lately given him in the Inquirer; the credulous radicals were congratulated upon the election of John Scott to the United States Senate, notwithstanding the wry faces of the editor of the Inquirer; and, grossest insult of all, the Bloody Run Press was declared to possess the affections of the radicals of the county in an equal degree with the Bedford Inquirer. But what else can be expected of that "old Democratic element," which, failing to rule in the heaven of Democracy, was kicked into the Hades of Radicalism? Old Whigs like Mr. Lutz are not at all sacred in its eyes. The only way to satisfy it, is to give it all the fat offices and let it control the party for its own particular uses. Can't Mr. Lutz "see it?"

The trouble between the Inquirer and Press factions threatens to become serious. The dirty linen of the leaders on either side, was only partially washed on Tuesday night. The soft soap of the Hall resolution will hardly cleanse it. At any rate it will require some ventilation before it can be quietly stowed away. It was very fowl the other night, and has raised quite a stink in radical circles. "An ounce of civet, good apothecary!"

A TRICK.

The Radicals have fixed the time for holding their primary election for the nomination of county candidates upon the day on which the spring elections will be held. This was done in order to get out a full vote to the spring elections, so as to secure Judges of Election, Assessors, and other township officers. They hope to catch the Democrats napping. We take occasion to warn our friends throughout the county against this trick of the enemy. See that the full Democratic vote is also brought out at the spring elections.

JOHN CESSNA—the Hon. John—who wasn't elected to Congress by 1,000 majority, as he used to boast he would be, came out flat-footed in the radical meeting, on Tuesday night, for the Congressional plan of out-flanking the people by forcing Negro Suffrage upon the "loyal states" through the agency of the legislatures already elected. He said that "Republicans would send Negroes to Congress before Shannon and Meyers would get there." No doubt of it. They have already sent one with a white skin.

ONLY SEVENTEEN MILLIONS!—Those who look upon a national debt as a national blessing will be especially gratified to learn that during the month of January just closed, over $17,000,000 was added to our national blessing. Surely at this rate, we will soon be the best blessed nation in the world.

AT the city election in Reading, Pa., last Friday, John H. Gourand, Democrat, was elected Mayor over the Hon. John P. Jones, by 167 majority.

DISGRACEFUL SCENES IN CONGRESS.

Counting the Electoral Vote.

Butler Wants to Exclude Georgia and Raises a Terrible Row in the Joint Convention of the Two Houses.

The proceedings in the joint convention of the two houses of Congress, during the counting of the votes of the States for President and Vice President, were a disgrace to the American people. The Senate had gone to the Hall of the House, and Ben. Wade occupied the chair as President of the joint convention. The count proceeded until Georgia was reached, when Ben. Butler jumped to his feet and objected to the counting of the vote of that state. Wade overruled the objection, and in true jugglar style decided that if the vote of Georgia changed the result it should not be counted, but if it did not change the result it should be counted!!! Then Butler raged and stormed. The Senate retired to consider Butler's objections, and after a session of forty minutes decided by a vote of 31 to 29 that the vote of Georgia should be counted. Meanwhile the House voted, 150 to 41, that the vote of Georgia should be rejected!!! The Senate again proceeded to the hall of the House, and then pandemonium opened. Butler, Schenck, Ingersole, Farnsworth, Van Horn, Banks, Kelly, Washburne and fifty others arose at once, screaming "Mr. President!" "Mr. Speaker!" Butler then moved that the Senate have leave to retire, and made a bitter and brutal attack upon the Senate, for its interference, (as he called it) with the rights of the House. A fierce debate at once sprang up, the speaking being frequently drowned amid hisses and cat-calls and exclamations of "order" and "question," when speaker Colfax arose and said that the decisions of President Wade must be respected, that there was no appeal from them, and directed the Sergeant-at-arms to arrest all members and persons in the galleries who would not preserve silence. Wade then decided Butler's motion out of order and Butler at once yelled back, "I appeal from the decision of the chair!" Wade refused to entertain the appeal, and Butler sprang into the ailse near his seat, rolled up his sleeves and shook his fists at Wade, whilst the noise and confusion, hisses, groans, cat-calls, shouts of "question," "order," were renewed with double fury. At this juncture Senator Doolittle arose and demanded that the votes of all the States should be read, and Mr. Wade at once obeyed and proclaimed U. S. Grant as elected President and Schuyler Colfax Vice President, after which the Senate hastened "to its own place."

Butler then renewed the war in the House. He offered a resolution rescinding the rule under which the joint convention had acted and asking for the appointment of a committee of five to vindicate "the outraged dignity of the House"!!! In speaking upon this resolution he denounced Colfax for directing the Sergeant-at-Arms to arrest members and bitterly ridiculed him and his uncle by marriage, Ben. Wade. Colfax left the chair and replied to Butler in cutting style. Schenck sustained Butler and Shellabarger took sides with Colfax. The end is not yet.

Thus was the election of Grant and Colfax officially proclaimed amid scenes of confusion, anger and discord. Gen. Grant becomes the President of a party rent into hostile factions whose feuds are already becoming a public disgrace.

DIVIDED.

That the Radical or "Republican" party is greatly divided on the subject of Negro Suffrage, is very evident.—The masses of the party are at heart opposed to the amendment to the Constitution by which the people of the States are to be defrauded of their right to settle the suffrage question for themselves. This feeling had expresion in the U. S. Senate, the other day, when the amendment passed that body. Messrs. ANTHONY and SPRAGUE, of Rhode Island, EDMUNDS, of Vermont, FOWLER, of Tennessee, GRIMES, of Iowa, and CORBETT, of Oregon, voted against the amendment. This is encouraging.

THE Cuban revolution is progressing quietly, but none the less steadily and effectually. The patriots are confident of success. With a view to enable them to accomplish this, organizations are being formed in New York and elsewhere for the purpose of providing substantial "aid and comfort." The Cuban ladies are moving in the matter, and are engaged in collecting hospital and other needed supplies which will be promptly forwarded.

Mrs. SURRATT's body was taken up the other day and given to her friends for interment. Thereupon, it is said, old Bingham's spirit grew faint, and he was unable to be in his seat in the House. The very mention of the murdered woman's name makes that old fanatic tremble for his life.

BEN BUTLER'S resolution impeaching the Senate was killed after a three day's bitter struggle, by a vote of 130 to 62. It was as complete a failure as his assault on Ft. Fisher.

THE MASK THROWN OFF.

Bedford County Republicans to Swallow Negro Suffrage!

Now, What Say You!

The Radical meeting, on Tuesday night of last week at the Court House, adopted the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the time has come when it is eminently wise and proper that the national Constitution should be so amended as to make suffrage, that sure badge and guarantee of free manhood, impartial; and that as the true and only safe basis of Republican institions is the intelligence of the people, and the great enemy of free government is ignorance, and its ally superstition, impartial suffrage should be accompanied with a constitutional provision requiring every State to provide by law for the establishment of common schools for the education of all children of proper age without respect to color at the expense of the States.

Resolved, That we call upon the Fortieth Congress without delay to give to the country by constitutional Amendment universal education and impartial suffrage and thus take the vexed question of the status of the negro out of the hands of partizan demagogues who in the South and in the North are using it for the sole purpose of agitation and to distract the people and retard the general peace and posperity to which the country ought before this have attained.

We call the attention of every member of the Republican party in this county to the above resolutions. They are copied word for word from the Bedford Inquirer of last week. Is this the feast to which the men who voted for Grant were invited? Is this the "peace" that we were promised?—Let Democrats show these resolutions to their Republican neighbors, and ask them now that the Radical party is openly and avowedly committed to Negro Suffrage, to be as good as their word and hereafter vote against that party. They have been deceived, shamefully, outrageously swindled by the Radical leaders, who declared in every possible way that it was not their intention to favor Negro Suffrage for the Northern or "loyal" states. Now let us see whether the "Republican" masses are men, or mice, whether their professions are truth are hypocrisy.

THE FEAST FOR THE LOBBY.

The reader may form some idea of the magnitude and grandeur of the programme of the plunderers at Washington, when informed that there are at present no less than thirty-one different projects for the constructson of railroads and canals before the Senate, and thirty-seven before the House, all asking government aid, either in land grants or guarantee of interest on their bonds, or both. Some of them are rivals; but this fact often renders their success the more certain. If there is enough plunder in the combined interests to satisfy the hunger of the lobby for the time being, they have only to unite their forces and the thing is accomplished. The Senate bills alone aggregate ten thousand miles of railroad, for which they ask for land grants covering two hundred and fifty millions of acres, and the guarantee of the interest on bonds to the extent of four hundred millions of dollars. Thirty-two of these projected schemes lie west of the Mississippi river. Some of them ask grants of land extending from five to twenty miles on each side of the road, besides sixteen, thirty-two and forty-eight thousand dollars per mile. Others will put up but three sections wide, in alternative sections, on each side of their line. The international Pacific of Texas and New Mexico asks seventy-six millions of acres as its share, besides the interest on its bonds amounting to one hundred and twenty millions of dollars.

DR. MUDD, who was tried a few years ago by a military commission and sentenced for life to the Dry Tortugas, has been pardoned by President Johnson. The petition for his pardon was signed by many members of Congress, and by all the officers and soldiers stationed at the place of his confinement.

The next Republican State Convention will be held in Philadelphia on the 23d of June.

NATIONAL BANKS.—The House Committee on Banks and Banking have under discussion two plans for furnishing national bank circulation to those sections of the country now destitute of it. One of them proposes a reduction of all the existing national banks 15 per cent., which will give 24,000,000 for these localities. The other is to limit the circulation of all national banks to 1,000,000, which will give $11,000,000; and this will probably be adopted by the committee, as it will favor the small banks at the expense of the larger ones.—National Intelligencer.

The Columbus Ga. Sun says: During the past summer a very distinguished Federal general informed us that nearly every officer on duty in the South, was the political and personal foe of its people, and that they had been carefully selected and minipulated by Stanton for the special service.

Hon. Murray McConnel, State Senator, was murdered in his office, in Jacksonville, Ill., last week. Marks of five blows, inflicted by a slung shot were found upon his head. No cause for the murder is assigned.

The Johnson movement is making headway in Tennessee. Five papers have already placed Andy's name at their mast-head.

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, February 8.

In the Senate, Mr. Wilson, from the committee on militry affairs, reported adversely on the joint resolution providing that the grades of general and lieutenant general and admiral shall cease when vacated by the present occupants. After the transaction of some other business and the introduction of bills, with appropriate reference, the proposed constitutional amendment in relation to universal suffrage was taken up and discussed until the honr of adjournment.

In the House a large number of bills were introduced and referred. The Senate's amendments to the copper tariff bill, after some debate, were agreed to.

WASHINGTON, February 9.

The proposed constitutional amendment, providing for universal suffrage, occupied most of the attention of the Senate yesterday, and finally passed with an important amendment.

In the House an interesting debate occurred on the bill to authorize the construction of a military and postal railroad between Washington and New York.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.

The two houses met in joint convention to-day to count the vote for President and Vice President of the United States. The ceremony attracted a large crowd to the galleries. Some objection was made to the counting of the vote of Louisiana, but it was finally decided that it should be counted. The vote of Georgia was next objected to in the House, and quite an exciting scene ensued, the objection being that the State had not complied with the reconstruction laws. Finally the House, by a vote of 150 to 41, decided that the vote of the State should not be counted.—The electoral votes of the other States were then announced, and General Grant was formally declared to be the President elect for four years, and the Hon. Schuyler Colfax the Vice President for the same period. A joint committee was then appointed to inform the two gentlemen of the fact.

In the Senate, Mr. White presented the credentials of the Hon. Wm. T. Hamilton, the new Senator elect from Maryland, whose term commences on the 4th of March.

WASHINGTON February, 13.

In the Senate naturalization bills were introduced and a new constiutional amedment giving Congress the power to establish a tribunal to determine the validity of the electoral vote of any State for President

In the House a bill was passed to pay the late United States consul at Matamoros, Mexico, $11,843 in gold expended by him during the rebellion in aiding Union men to escape from Texas. A bill was passed regulating the reports of the national banking associations, requiring them to be made monthly and every half year. Also one prohibiting national banks from certifying checks where they have not deposits of the parties covering the amount. A bill was passed to prevent national banks loaning money with United States or national bank notes as collateral security. Mr. Hooper's bill to prohibit the further increase of the public debt was called up and passed.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

A horible tragedy was unearthed at Warsaw, Ind., on the 8th inst. Last April, John W. Vanatta, from Fort Wayne, secured the affections a Miss Horn, of Warsaw, and married her in opposition to the wishes of her parents and relative. On the wedding night nearly all the guests, thirty in number, were taken sick with every appearance of poisoning by arsenic. A sister of Miss Horn died from its effects. It has been ascertained that he proposed an elopement with a young lady, Miss Bennett, within the last few days, and in his letter to her gives a full history of the poisoning, acknowledging that he had put a large quantity of arsenic in the water from which the coffee was prepared, and that he did it for revenge for the manner in which the family had treated him. He was arrested on Friday, and after examinatian committed to jail in default of bail to the amount of $50,000. Great excitement exists in this community in consequence of this wholesale attempt at poisoning. All the parties concerned are among the most respectable citizens of this place.

A negro murdered the Rev. J. H. Merrill, on the Gort Smith road, near Little Rock, Arkansas, on the 31st ult. Mr. Merrill was on his way home from Little Rock and camped all night in the woods. The negro came to him and asked permission to remain with him until morning. Mr. Merrill kindly consented; but in the night his guest took an axe and beat his head in. When the crime was discovered several citizens mounted their horses and started in pursuit. The wretch was caught on the railroad, below Huntersville, and taken to Little Rock, where he is now in jail. The murder was entirely unprovoked.

A scandal case is agitating Omaha. The Rev. Samuel Herman, rector of Brownell Female Seminary, has been arraigned before trustees of the institution charged with improper intimacy with one of the lady teachers. The sudden disappearance of the lady led to the investigation. The reverend gentleman confesses to nearly one year's intimacy, and also implicates medical gentlemen of high standing in the church. The affair has created great excitement in social circles, all parties having held stations of responsibility in the church and in society.

The California papers state that on the completion of the Central Pacific Railroad, the company intend to arrange to send grapes through to New York for $100 per ton, and furnish cars expressly for the purpose on their road. The price of table grapes—the white varieties—has ranged from 50 to 75 cents per pound, and scarce at that. In California they are worth three or four cents.

ARRESTED.—As the Emigrant train halted at the depot, in this place, on Saturday afternoon, Constable Lutz appeared with a warrant to arrest a man named Funk, charged with robbing the store of Mr. Reach, at Blair Furnace. Funk, who was on the train, observed the Constable, and at once gave leg bail. After a considerable chase and kicking up quite an excitement, he was overhauled and taken before Alderman McCormick, who upon evidence presented, required him to give bail, in the sum of $500 for his appearance on Monday last.—Altoona Tribune.

THE New York Tribune says the reason why Plantation Bitters are so generally used is owing to the fact that they are always made up to the original standard, and pure material, let the price be what it will. The Tribune just hits the nail on the head, for Plantation Bitters are not only made of pure material, but the people are told what they are made of, as the recipe is wrapped around each bottle. Don't go home without a bottle.

ADMITTED.—W. C. Schaffer, S. B. Lysinger and D. S. Elliott, Esqs., were admitted to practice in the several courts of this county, last week. We understand they passed a very creditable examination. They are a trio of deserving young men, and we know they will meet the success they merit, wherever they may see fit to hang out their shingles.

WE call attention to the proceedings of the Railroad meeting held last week. Some parties have made handsome subscriptions, and it now remains for others to go and do likewise. If we ever want a railroad to this place, we must be in earnest and help ourselves to it. Now is a good time to do it. So, friends of the road, keep the ball rolling.

A DIRECT ANSWER.—During the trial of an assault and battery case, at our court, last week, the following colloquy between a learned lawyer and an unsophisticated urchin, took place:

Lawyer. Did you see defendant strike plaintiff.

Witness. Yes, sir.

Lawyer. Did he strike him with violence?

Of course this "brought down" the house but the youth "didn't see it."

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On last Thursday, as Mr. Frederick Bortz and his brother Martin, of Cumberland Valley, were in the woods spliting rails, an accident befel the former, which, we are sorry to learn, has since proved fatal. The facts as we got them are these: The two brothers were working at a log on the side of a hill. By some means the log was set in motion and commenced rolling down the hill. Frederick being on the lower side, saw his danger and endeavored to jump out of the way but in attempting to do so, slipped and fell, the piece of timber striking his arm and lodging on his neck. He was conveyed home, and Drs. Watson and Anderson, of this place, were sent for to give medical aid to the unfortunate man. But little hope was entertained of his recovery. His body, from the shoulders down, was completely paralyzed, while his mind to the last, was as clear as ever. He lingered, with but little pain, till Sunday night, when he expired. A wife and two small children are left to mourn his untimely death.

THE FIRST CASE.—"Ye local" was called upon, last week, to witness the trial of a cause in which two newly made lawyers were concerned for the prosecution. The young members of the bar had everything their own way. The austere demeanor of their opponents, though complaining of ailments to which they were accustomed, availed them not. In fact the defendants were struck dumb by the skillful manner in which they were handled by the young members aforesaid. The sympathy of the audience was against them, and every one present "went for them" with a gusto that was refreshing to behold. The verdict was unanimously in favor of the lawyers. But hearken to the sequel. When the whole matter was cast up, it was found that the inexperienced practitioners were in for the costs! Of such is the glorious uncertainty of the law. We resolved to quit this scene—this "feast of reason and flow of soul"—and washing down our bivalves with a liquid from the good old county of Berks, and muttering a short petition for the diciples of Blackstone, we departed, leaving a friend, who had outdone himself by his classic eloquence, master of the situation. And further deponent saith not.

RAILROAD MEETING.—Pursuant to previous notice, the Commissioners appointed in the Act incorporating the Bedford and Bridgeport Railroad Company to open books and receive subscriptions of stock, met at the Court House, in Bedford, on Wednesday evening, Feb. 10. THE

AMERICAN SHUTTLE

SEWING MACHINE!

Is retailed at a price within the reach of all. This Machine uses a straight needle, makes the LOCK STITCH (alike on both sides), has a self-adjusting tension, and can do every variety of sewing. It will hem, fell, bind, cord, braid, seam, built, tuck, ruffle, and gather; and will work equally well on silk, linen, woolen, or cotton goods, with silk, linen, or cotton thread.

THE

AMERICAN SHUTTLE SEWING MACHINE

Our Agents will be supplied with duplicate parts of the Machine, in case of accident. It makes precisely the same stitch made by the Singer, Wheeler & Wilson, Howe, and Florence Machines. We are enabled to sell a first-class SHUTTLE MACHINE at a very low price, on account of its Simplicity, and consequent low cost of Manufacturing, in comparison with Complicated Machines.

THE GREAT

AMERICAN COMBINATION

Button Hole Overseaming

AND

SEWING MACHINE.

Its Wonderful Popularity Conclusive Proof of its Great Merit.

The increase in the demand for this valuable machine has been TEN FOLD during the last seven months of its first year before the public.

This grand and surprising success is unprecedented in the history of sewing-machines, and we feel fully warranted in claiming that

IT HAS NO EQUAL.

BEING ABSOLUTELY THE BEST

FAMILY MACHINE

IN THE WORLD,

And Intrinsically the Cheapest.

It is really two machines combined in one, (by a simple and beautiful mechanical arrangement,) making both the Shuttle or Lock-stitch, and the Overseaming and Button-hole stitch, with equal facility and perfection. It executes in the very best manner every variety of sewing, such as Hemming, Felling, Cording, Tucking, Stitching, Braiding and Quilting, Gathering and sewing on, (done at the same time,) and in addition, Overseams, Embroiders on the edge, and makes beautiful Button and Eyelet-holes in all fabrics.

Every Machine is warranted by the Company, or its Agents, to give entire satisfaction.

Circulars, with full particulars and samples of work done on this Machine, can be had on application at the Salesrooms of

FAMILY

SEWING MACHINE.

The superior merits of the "Singer" Machines over all others, for either Family use or Manufacturing purposes, are so well established and so generally admitted, that an enumeration of their relative excellences is no longer considered necessary.

OUR NEW FAMILY MACHINE,

which has been brought to perfection regardless of time, labor, or expense, is now confidently presented to the public as incomparably the Best Sewing Machine in existence. The machine in question is Simple, Compact, Durable and Beautiful. It is quiet, light running, and never before attempted upon a single Machine,—using either SILK, TWIST, LINEN OR COTTON THREAD, and sewing with equal facility the very finest and coarsest materials, and anything between the two extremes, in the most beautiful and substantial manner. Its attachments for Hemming, Braiding, Cording, Tucking, Quilting, Felling, Trimming, Binding, etc., are Novel and Practical, and have been invented and adjusted especially for this Machine.

New designs of the Unique, Useful, and Popular Folding Tops and Cabinet Cases, peculiar to the Machines manufactured by this Company, have been prepared for enclosing the new Machine.

A faint idea, however, can at best be conveyed through the medium of a (necessarily) limited advertisement; and we therefore urge every person in quest of a Sewing Machine, by all means to examine and test, if they can possibly do so, all the leading rival Machines before making a purchase. A selection can then be made understandingly. Branches or agencies for supplying the "Singer" Machines will be found in nearly every city and town throughout the civilized world, where Machines will be cheerfully exhibited, and any information promptly furnished. Or communications may be addressed to

CELEBRATED

BITTER CORDIAL.

This medical preparation is now offered to the public as a reliable substitute for the many worthless compounds which now flood the market. It is purely vegetable, composed of various herbs, gathered from the great storehouse of nature, and selected with the utmost care. It is not recommended as a CURE ALL, but by its direct and salutary influence upon the Heart, Liver, Kidneys, Lungs, Stomach and Bowels, it acts both as a preventive and cure for many of the diseases to which those organs are subject. It is a reliable Family Medicine, and can be taken by either infant or adult with the same beneficial results It is a certain, prompt and speedy remedy for DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, BOWEL COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA, LOWNESS OF SPIRITS, FAINTINGS, SICK-HEADACHE, &c. For Chills and Fevers of all kinds, it is far better and safer than quinine, without any of its pernicious effects. It creates an appetite, proves a powerful digester of food, and will counteract the effects of liquor in a few minutes.

AYER'S

HAIR VIGOR,

FOR THE RENOVATION OF THE HAIR.

THE GREAT DESIDERATUM OF THE AGE.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color and the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts longer on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

HAIR DRESSING,

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one Medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For DYSPEPSIA or INDIGESTION, LISTLESSNESS, LANGUOR and LOSS of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For LIVER COMPLAINT and its various symptoms, BILLIOUS HEADACHE, SICK HEADACHE, JAUNDICE or Green SICKNESS, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For DYSENTERY or DIARRHŒA, but one mild dose is generally required.

For RHEUMATISM, GOUT, GRAVEL, PALPITATION OF THE HEART, PAIN IN THE SIDE, BACK and LOINS, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For DROPSY and DROPSICAL SWELLINGS they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For SUPPRESSION a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a DINNER PILL, take one or two pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these PILLS makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

MUSICAL DOINGS.—Since Mr. Waters gave up publishing sheet music, he has devoted his whole capital and attention to the manufacture and sale of Pianos and Melodeons. He has just issued a catalogue of his new instruments, giving a new scale of prices, which shows a marked reduction from former rates, and his Pianos have recently been awarded the First Premium at several Fairs. Many people of the present day, who are attracted, if not confused, with the flaming adeertisements of rival piano houses, probably overlook the modest manufacturer like Mr. Waters; but we happen to know that his instruments earned him a good reputation long before Expositions and "honors" connected therewith were ever thought of; indeed, we have one of Mr. Waters' Pianofortes now in our residence (where it has stood for many years,) of which any manufacturer in the world might well be proud. We have always been delighted with it as a sweet-toned and powerful instrument, and there is no doubt of its durability; more than this, some of the best amateur players in the city, as well as several celebrated pianists, have performed on the same piano, and all pronounce it a superior and first-class instrument. Stronger endorsement we could not give.—Home Journal. jan15,'69.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develops into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this Sarsaparilla is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find immediate relief, and, at length, cure, by the use of this Sarsaparilla: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various Ulcerous affections of the muscular and nervous systems.

Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure these complaints. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Directions for each case are found in our Almanac, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Torpidity, Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poisons in the blood. This SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are Languid and Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.

Miscellaneous.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometime subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

AYER'S AGUE CURE,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in no wise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of Ague medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or traveling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

For Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints, it is an excellent remedy, producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & Co., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass., and sold all round the world.
